Mystery in London

1 It is the year 1898, and you are Mycroft Pound, the famous detective. You are sitting in your house in London, one cold November evening. There is a knock at the door. It is Inspector Freewell of the London police.

‘Can you come to Whitechapel, Mr Pound? We need your help. There’s a woman in the street. She isn’t dead, but there’s blood everywhere. We think it’s the Whitechapel Killer again.’

■ You put on your coat. Go to 18.

You are in Annie's house. A woman comes in.

'Who are you? What are you doing here?' she asks.

You tell her about Annie.

'That's terrible,' she says.

'Do you know any of her friends?' you ask.

The woman thinks. 'Her best friend is a woman called Rosy. She lives in Limehouse Street. But she has a boyfriend. That's him, there, in that picture. I don't like him.'

■ You go back to the Rose and Crown to talk to the other people. Go to 10.

■ You go to Limehouse Street to look for Rosy. Go to 35.

3 You want to get on to the Californian and talk to Jack.

■ You jump in the water and swim after the ship. Go to 8.

■ You cannot swim. You think about how you can get on to the ship. Go to 13.

4 ‘Do you know the name of the woman in the street?’ you ask the old man.

He cannot hear you and he does not answer.

■ Go to 10.

Mystery in London

---

5 You go across the bridge, but you cannot see the Californian. There is a sailor in one of the small boats, and there is an old man fishing.

■ You ask the sailor for help. Go to 24.

■ You ask the old man for help. Go to 34.

6

You talk to the young man. He comes into the street and looks at the woman.

‘Her name’s Annie, I think,’ he says.

‘Do you know where she lives?’

‘Yes. She lives in Cable Street, I think.’

■ You go back into the Rose and Crown and talk to the other people. Go to 10.

■ You go to Cable Street. Go to 30.

Mystery in London

---

7 The captain of the Californian calls the three Jacks.
Which Jack do you want to speak to?

- The Jack on the left. Go to 17.
- The Jack in the middle. Go to 23.
- The Jack on the right. Go to 31.

8 You jump into the water and swim after the ship.
But the ship is going very fast. After five minutes, the Californian is out of the London docks and going to India. And you are now very cold.

- Go to 22.

9 You tell Rosy about Annie.

‘I’m Annie’s best friend,’ she says. She is crying. ‘But she has a boyfriend.’

‘Who’s he?’ you ask.

‘A sailor. His name’s Jack. He’s often at her house in Cable Street. His ship’s in the London docks now, I think.’

■ You want to find Jack, so you go to the docks. Go to 14.

■ You want to find out more about Annie so you go to her house in Cable Street. Go to 19.

10 There are four people in the Rose and Crown. You want to ask some questions about the woman in the street. Who do you talk to first?

- You talk to the old man. Go to 4.
- You talk to the young man. Go to 6.
- You talk to the old woman. Go to 15.
- You talk to the young woman. Go to 28.

11 The sailor looks at you.
'Jack?' he says. 'There are hundreds of sailors called Jack. There's a Jack on every ship.'

You must find the name of Jack's ship. You go to Annie's room to look for more information.

■ Go to 19.

12 You are in the London docks. There are hundreds of ships. You want to find the Californian and you want to catch Jack.

■ You go across the bridge. Go to 5.

■ You go to the right. Go to 20.

■ You go to the left. Go to 29.

13 There is a bridge across the water. You go on the bridge and jump onto the Californian. You go to the captain.

‘There’s a man on your ship I must talk to,’ you say. ‘His name is Jack.’

‘Why do you want to talk to him?’ he asks.

‘He’s the Whitechapel Killer, I think.’

‘There are three Jacks on my ship,’ says the captain.

‘Can I see them all?’ you ask.

■ Go to 7.

14 You go to the London docks to look for Jack, Annie's friend. There are hundreds of ships, and thousands of sailors. You talk to a sailor.

'Do you know a sailor called Jack?' you ask.

■ Go to 11.

15 You talk to the old woman. She comes into the street and looks at the woman.

‘Her name’s Annie,’ she says.

‘Do you know where she lives?’ you ask.

‘Yes. She lives in Cable Street. I don’t know what number,’ she answers.

■ You go back to the Rose and Crown and talk to the other people. Go to 10.

■ You go to Cable Street. Go to 30.

16

You knock at the white door. A young woman opens the door.

‘Are you Rosy?’ you ask.

‘Yes.’

‘Are you a friend of Annie?’

‘Yes,’ she says.

‘I’ve got bad news for you,’ you say. ‘I’m afraid she’s very ill.’

‘No.’ Rosy starts to cry.

■ Go to 9.

17 You talk to the Jack on the left. He is not the Whitechapel Killer.

■ Go to 7.

18 The Whitechapel Killer attacks people with a long knife. Six women are dead because of him.

You arrive in Whitechapel and the police are waiting for you there. The woman is lying in the street, near the Rose and Crown. She is very ill, so she cannot talk to you. You see some bicycle tracks on the road.

■ You follow the bicycle tracks. Go to 25.

■ You go into the Rose and Crown. You want to talk to the people there. Go to 10.

19

You look in Annie's house and find a letter.

The Californian, Saturday

Annie,

Tomorrow my ship is going to India. Please meet me at the Rose and Crown tonight. I have something very important for you.

Jack

So the name of Jack's ship is the Californian. Is Jack the man you want? Is Jack the Whitechapel Killer? You go to the London docks to look for Jack on the Californian.

■ Go to 12.

20

There are a lot of ships, but you cannot see the Californian here.

■ Go back to 12.

21

You knock on the blue door. An old man opens it. 'I'm looking for Rosy,' you say.

'She doesn't live here,' he says. 'She lives in the white house, I think.'

■ Go to 16.

22 The Whitechapel Killer is free. Can you be a better detective next time? Try again.

■ Go back to 1.

23 You talk to the Jack in the middle. He is not the Whitechapel Killer.

■ Go to 7.

Mystery in London

---

24 You talk to the sailor.
'Do you know a ship called the Californian?' you ask him.

The sailor looks at you. 'I am from Russia,' he says. 'I do not speak English.'

■ Go to 5.

25 You follow the bicycle tracks to a bigger road, so you cannot see the tracks any more.

■ Go to 18.

26 You knock on the red door. There is no-one at home.

■ Go to 35.

27 There is a knife in his pocket. And there is blood on it. This Jack is the Whitechapel Killer.

■ Go to 33.

28 ‘Do you know the name of the woman in the street?’ you ask the young woman in the Rose and Crown. She comes out into the street and looks at her. ‘I don’t know her name but she has a friend called Rosy. Ask her!’

‘Where does Rosy live?’ you ask.

‘She lives in Limehouse Street.’

■ You go back to the Rose and Crown and talk to the other people. Go to 10.

■ You go to Limehouse Street to find Rosy. Go to 35.

29 You go to the East India Dock. You can see the Californian, but it is sailing out of the dock.

■ You can see Jack so you try to get on the ship. Go to 3.

■ You cannot see Jack on the ship. You can go to the hospital and talk to Annie, and you can write to the Indian police about Jack. Go to 22.

30 You go to Cable Street, and talk to the people there. After a few minutes you find Annie's house. You look at everything very carefully.

■ Go to 2.

31 You talk to the Jack on the right.

'Do you know a woman called Annie?' you ask.

'No,' he says.

But this Jack has an ear-ring. And there is something in his pocket. Is it a knife? Perhaps this Jack is the Whitechapel Killer.

■ Go to 27.

32 Another good day's work for Mycroft Pound, the great detective, finishes. You go back to your house. No criminal is safe in London when Mycroft, the great detective, is at work.

33 The captain helps you, and you arrest the Whitechapel Killer. You take him off the ship and give him to the police.

■ Go to 32.

34 You talk to the old man.
'Do you know a ship called the Californian?' you ask him.

'Yes,' he says. 'It's going to India today, so it's in the East India Dock.'

You must find the East India Dock.

■ Go to 12.

35 You go to Limehouse Street. You are looking for Rosy, Annie's friend. Which house do you want to try first?

- The house with the white door. Go to 16.
- The house with the blue door. Go to 21.
- The house with the red door. Go to 26.
