Where I live by Potula Vlemmas

Athens in Greece is a brilliant city because it has things that are really old, like ancient ruins / bike lanes, and things that are new, like (1) industrial sites / sports stadiums for watching football and basketball matches. It is very easy to travel around Athens because there is a (2) public space / railway line that you can use to go almost anywhere that you want. This is a good way to travel because there is usually too much (3) green space / heavy traffic in the (4) pedestrian walkway / city centre for people to use their cars.

Athens is a good city for young people because if you like listening to people sing or play instruments there are many (5) music venues / leisure facilities. If you like something a little more active, there are (6) open-air cinemas / skateparks too.
