A simpler life – by Mark Watson

Last year, I remember feeling unhappy on Black Friday. That's the day in November when retailers try to make us spend as much money as possible. Months before Black Friday, I began receiving loads of emails and brochures with advertisements for products and services. When I didn't buy them, retailers started sending me special offers. Worried that I would miss such great bargains, I bought the products even if I didn't want or need them. As the money I had saved got lower and my email box more full, I realized I was miserable and in danger of having no money left.

That was when I decided to make a change and to only buy things that I actually needed. I quickly realized that I only needed to spend money on food and transport – the basics! I began to see that I didn't really use a lot of what I already had. My wardrobe was full of clothes and shoes from famous brands, still with the labels on. I returned all the items that I had receipts for and gave away what I didn't really need.

With all the money I have saved, I can afford to go on holiday. That's much more fun! I can even save for driving lessons and I dream of having my own car one day.

7 Read Mark's blog post. Write short answers to the questions. (10 marks)

- Before Black Friday, what did Mark begin to receive from retailers?

- What did the retailers send him when he didn't buy anything from them?

- How did he feel when he had spent lots of money?

- What does he hope to buy in the future?
